Gov. Charles S. Whitman of New York will speak at the banquet of the Mahoning Valley McKinley Club in Youngstown on the night of January 21 and a considerable number of old Canfield friends and acquaintances will be there to meet and greet him.

Appointment of William H. Taft as Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States to succeed the late Justice Lamar in disregard of party lines is urged upon President Wilson in a statement made public by Alton B. Parker, formerly chief judge of the Court of Appeals and one-time democratic nominee for president. Mr. Parker declares that Mr. Taft is the best equipped man for the place and should be drafted, if need be, to fill it.

YOUNGSTOWN

Harry Thomas, republican, and J. S. McKee, democrat, of this city and H. W. Spear, republican, of Garfield, were last week appointed members of the county board of tax revision. The salary is yet to be fixed, but will probably be from $1800 to $2000 a year. This will be determined by the attorney general.

More idle men have lined the streets of the city the last week than for a long time, due to the strike at iron and steel plants.

The Buick roadster belonging to W. M. Kerr of Niles, stolen from in front of a restaurant in Phelps street, was recovered in Harrisburg, Pa., and two young men who had it were placed under arrest.

Work is progressing rapidly on the new hotel on the site of the old Tod House and the new Salow building on West Federal street.

The will of the late Henry Wick has been filed for probate. With the exception of a few bequests to public institutions, the bulk of the estate goes to the children. The will provides for an income of at least $10,000 for the widow, but Mrs. Wick died within a few days of her husband, and the estate will go to the three children, Hugh, Myron and Mrs. Florence Sampson. The surviving sisters of the deceased and his daughters-in-law and son-in-law, are each given $1,000. Charles Westlake, an employee of the Wick interests, is given $1,000 and other help are remembered by small bequests. John C. Wick, Hugh B. Wick and Myron A. Wick are named executors. The will was signed March 29, 1911. The testator left $12,500 in trust. The net income from $5,000 of this is to be paid to the Y. M. C. A. The same provision is made for the Youngstown Hospital Association. The net income from $2,500 is to be paid to the Home for Aged Women.

People from miles around visited Berlin Sunday to see the soldiers and had the pleasure of watching them drill most of the afternoon. It was quite a sight as there were 600 drilling in different squads. One troop practiced with a machine gun. Believe me, we were looking for the trenches when we saw that a we cared to be. Monday afternoon the troops left for Columbus as it was decided their services were not needed at East Youngstown.

PRESIDENT WILL FIGHT

President Wilson will become a candidate for president for a second term providing he is nominated by the Democratic national convention at St. Louis next June.

It is rumored he will make the hardest fight of which he is capable for the presidency by the country at large of the policies of his first administration, both foreign and domestic.

The president will accept the nomination whether it comes unanimously or by acclamation or after a contest on the floor of the convention. Until the convention has spoken, however, the president largely will remain silent when it comes to any discussion of politics in so far as it relates in any way to his own personal political future.

In the meantime, and this is regarded in the political circles at the national capital as highly important, the president will be kept busy in a change of attitude by William Jennings Bryan or any other leader or group of men within or without the Democratic party.

THE KNOCKER'S CREED

The following clever piece of irony from the St. Louis Dispatch tells the story of the "knocker." It may be slightly overdrawn, but yet there are many people in every city who have a similar creed, even though they may not admit it. Here it is:

I believe that nothing is right. I believe that everything is wrong. I believe that I alone have the right ideas. The town is wrong, the editor is wrong, the teachers are wrong, the people are wrong, the things they do are wrong and they are doing them in the wrong way, anyhow. I believe I could fix things if they would let me. If they don't I will get a lot of other fellows like myself and we will have a law passed to make others do things the way we want them done. I do not believe that the town ought to grow. It is too big now. I believe in fighting every public improvement and spoiling everybody's pleasure. I am always to the front in opposing things and never yet advanced an idea or supported a movement that would make the people happier or add to the pleasure of man, woman or child. I am opposed to fun and am happiest when at a funeral. I believe in starting reforms that will take the joy out of life. It's a sad world and I am glad of it. Amen.

Death of Erastus Johnson

Erastus Johnson died at his home near the water works pumping station early Wednesday morning, Jan. 5, aged nearly 70 years. Funeral services were held on Friday afternoon at the home. The deceased was born in Milton township, Mahoning county, Jan. 13, 1845, being a son of Elijah and Jane Fenton Johnson. He was a life long farmer. He was married to Mary A. Strook in his young manhood and they lived in Newton, Trumbull county, for ten years and went to Milton in 1873, where they lived until coming to Ravenna ten years ago.

For 49 years the deceased was correspondent for the Agricultural department of Ohio and kept a daily weather report. He was also a granger for 40 years and a member of the Ravenna Grange. Mrs. David Groner was adjudged insane last week by Judge Farr, she having suffered from mental trouble for several months, but on account of being ill with pneumonia she could not be taken at once to Massillon for treatment.

The mystery surrounding the robbery of the Salem Hardware Co. on two recent occasions was solved this other day when Chief Cook took four boys ranging from 8 to 13 years of age into custody. The lads were taken to Lisbon and Judge Farr gave them a suspended sentence to the industrial school at Lancaster. They were then permitted to return home, all promising to be good in the future.

Men claiming to be strikers from Youngstown were in the city Saturday soliciting assistance. It is safe to presume that they were only tramps seeking to further shirk work through the generosity of our people.

The Columbiana County Schoolmasters' Association held a profitable meeting in this city last Friday night. Charles Hendricks has been adjudged an epileptic by Judge Farr and will be taken to the state hospital at Gallipolis for treatment.

Jonas Peppel of Salem township has sued the Columbiana county agricultural society for $5000 damages. He alleges that he engaged a stall for his stallion at the fair two years ago and was given one so small that when he attempted to enter it the animal kicked and broke one of his legs, making it necessary for him to spend two weeks in the Salem hospital and remain idle the following winter.

Four foreigners who boarded a Y. & O. electric car here Sunday night carried off a satchel belonging to conductor Daniel Davis. Two of the men were arrested in Leetonia.

During 1915 there were 588 patients treated in the city hospital.

The six Alliance young men brought here to answer to the charge of disturbance in the Stark Electric station and on a car New Year's eve were fined a total of $55. It is understood that at least one more of the offenders will have to face Mayor Johnson.

QUITE A HARMLESS "GHOST"

Inoffensive Little Fragment Created Something Like Consternation in Section of Omaha.

Even if an official statement has been given out that a mouse was responsible for ringing the bell in the steeple of North Presbyterian church, the policemen of the district, as well as most of the residents in the neighborhood, cannot quite figure how it was done. The bell was disconnected at the request of Rev. John R. Mackey, pastor of the church, last January, and since then has not been ringing the hours as marked by the clock in the steeple.

Even the lieutenant in the police station suffered from the "creeps" and visions of a phantom bellringer and a ghost in the belfry. When telephone calls began to come into the station he dispatched four reserves to the church.

When they arrived they found that John Effner, the sexton, had made an investigation and could find nothing in the tower to explain the sudden clanging of the bell. Four "hanky" policemen and the sexton climbed the narrow ladder leading to the belfry and with police lanterns began an investigation. While they were looking the bell clanged again.

Expecting every minute to see an apparition, the police kept at their examination and discovered that a cog in the clock had been shifted by a small bit of hide, making it possible for the bell to ring. An examination showed that the hide was part of a mouse which evidently had been entangled in the delicate clock mechanism which controls the bell. The policemen still are wondering, however, how the mouse did the hickory-dickory-dock feat, for the works of the clock are several feet off the floor and are held up by supports.

The clock was stopped last January at the request of Rev. Milo Bates, rector of the Church of the Intercession. The parish house of that church is across the street, and when Mrs. Gates was ill last winter the ringing of the bell annoyed her, and it was stopped. The bell was not attached to the clock again because residents of the neighborhood said it was a nuisance.—Omaha Bee.

Woman's Long Dog-Sled Trip.

The cold and frozen Arctic had no particular terrors for Mrs. J. L. Bond, wife of Captain Bond, who has returned to San Francisco with her husband and the Thirtieth regiment of infantry from a two years' stay in Alaska at Fort Gibbon.

Mrs. Bond entered enthusiastically into the sports of the region of the midnight sun, snow, and perpetual ice, becoming an expert skier and something of a musher. The longest and most perilous trip which she took was made with her own dog team in company with Mrs. R. H. Pearson and two expert guides from Fort Gibbon to Fairbanks, then to Chena Hot Spring and back to Fort Gibbon, a distance of 650 miles. The thermometer stood between 40 and 50 below zero during the whole of the trip. Mrs. Bond says she enjoyed every mile of the trip and refused to admit that there was anything hazardous in it. They were well provided with food and covers.

Flies Disliked in Denmark.

On the billboards of Copenhagen, appears the sign, "The most dangerous of all animals is not the lion, the tiger or the reptile, but—the fly." This is the means Herr Falck uses in waging a campaign against flies.

Herr Falck is the bitterest enemy the fly has in Scandinavia, and his one ambition is to see a flyless Denmark. To preach his new crusade he has organized in Copenhagen the first complete fly exhibition in the world. It contains every kind of weapon yet invented for trapping, poisoning or smashing flies. Most of these contrivances come from the United States.

An old superstition that Herr Falck hopes to rid the people of is that a Christmas fly brings good luck. A Christmas fly, according to Herr Falck, is the potential mother of 195,312,500,000 descendants in the course of the summer season.
